

On March 12, 2008 at 6:30 p.m., the Women Police of Alaska meeting at the FOAST Trooper Museum was called to order by President Michele Logan.

Present at the meeting: Michele Logan, Andrea Jacobson, Rae Arno, Sherrie Daigle, Wanda Phillips, Laura Caperton, Greg McDonald, and Lucas Altepeter.

Sherrie Daigle and Wanda Phillips had to leave early, and at different times, so there was no quorum. Minutes will be approved at the next WPA meeting on May 5, 2008 at the APOA Crime Conference in Juneau.

Treasure Rae Arno gave a brief treasurer's report. The only activity since the last meeting was a $1,000 payout for the WPA scholarship winner, Elizabeth Harney, and a check for $123.20 to Maxine Andrews for the website domain, both checks which are both outstanding. There is currently $5,420.46 in the checking account with a checkbook balance of $4,297.26

OLD BUSINESS

WPA Items at FOAST

Laura Caperton, the Executive Director of FOAST, sat in on some ideas for a new T-shirt design. We tentatively sketched out an idea of a map of Alaska with a law enforcement badge within the state map. A black T-shirt with a blue, gold and white design will be looked at. Michele Logan and Sherrie Daigle will go to Serigraphics with the design ideas.

APOA Conference – Juneau May 2008 Silent Auction

Kris Sell, Juneau PD is trying to get 25-30 items donated for the silent auction. We are still looking for items. Wanda Phillips brought in a photography set to be donated. Michele Logan will make sure the items get to Juneau.

NEXT MEETING

The next meeting of the Women Police of Alaska will be May 5, 2008 in Juneau at the 2008 APOA Crime Conference.
